IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

W. A. B. Branch, Esq., of Washington county, is on a visit to his relatives in this city.

A Merrimon, Rogers and Cox flag flew from the windows of the DAILY NEWS office yesterday.

Yesterday was decidedly the driest day of the season—not a drop could be had for love or money.

Strange to say not a single disturbance on the streets or at any of the voting precincts yesterday.

Though the stores were not closed, yet business was almost entirely suspended in the city yesterday.

Jordan Stone, Managing Editor of the News, returned yesterday from his extended and thorough eastern canvass.

An extra police force was ordered on the streets yesterday by Mayor Whitaker to preserve order and quiet around the polls and public places.

The young men of Raleigh deserve great praise for their energy and devotion to our cause, as displayed by the ceaseless toil in yesterday's election.

James D. Brooks, Esq., the gentlemanly and efficient agent of the Wilmington Life Insurance Company, is quartered at the Yarborough House.

The twenty-five young Democrats that were to vote for Billy Smith, did not make their appearance at the polls yesterday and yet Raleigh polled her full Democratic strength.

Judge Merrimon arrived in the city last evening and addressed a large assemblage at Metropolitan Hall. Messrs. Pace and Dupre followed. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

Jacob S. Battle, Esq., of Nash county, the young North Carolinian that recently graduated at the University of Virginia, with marked honor and distinction, is on a visit to his friends and relations in this city.

Dr. V. E. TURNER.—It will be seen from a notice in our advertising columns this morning, that Dr. Turner, dentist, will be absent from his office in this city for three weeks.

We understand that the Doctor contemplated making a trip to several cities of the North and Canada, and while absent, will embrace the opportunity of visiting eminent gentlemen in his profession, with the view of examining the latest improvements in Dentistry and will replenish his stock of Dental instruments—thus making his trip combine pleasure and business.

MEETING OF THE CITY COMMISSIONERS.—The Board of the City Commissioners met at the Court House Wednesday evening, His Honor Mayor Whiteker presiding.

All the Commissioners present except Stewart Ellison, who had other fish to fry.

Owing to the great excitement in the city, and the speaking then in progress at Metropolitan Hall, but little business was transacted, only the allowance of a number of claims against the city.

The meeting adjourned to meet next Wednesday night.

THE PRESS GANG.—The following gentlemen of the press are now in the city watching the developing of the great event: Cuthbert, of the New York Herald; White and Palmer, of the Tribune; Coffin, of the World; Crispey, of the Times; Shinkin, of the Cincinnati Commercial; Handly, of the Richmond Dispatch; Walters, of the Charlotte Courier; while many other papers are represented by some of the above named correspondents.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Rev. J. P. Moore, Presiding Elder of the Fayetteville Conference District, (Methodist Episcopal church) passed through the city yesterday evening.

THE ELECTION IN THE CITY YESTERDAY.—We give below the result of the general election in this city, and in one or two of the Townships in this county yesterday. The election passed off quietly, we learning of no disturbance of any character:

GREELEY.

Did any one doubt that the Greeley movement is gaining ground in the country, if he persuades himself that it is of no importance, he must be a casual observer of events, and was taught in a school in which once did not convince.

From every section of the country daily additions are made to the Liberal ranks, men who have been Republicans since the day of the existence of the party, who have shaped its course and given what cast it had to the organization, are giving in their adhesion to this party of honesty and principle.

Who would have thought a year or so since that Charles Sumner, one of the great heads of the Republican party, would, to-day, be the advocate of men who have dissolved their allegiance to the organization.

Whatever may be said of Mr. Greeley, no one casts imputations upon the honesty of his course consistency has been one of the characteristics of his political life, and in giving in his adhesion and supporting a movement of which he is now the leader, proves beyond question, that reform is his watchword, and that it is needed no man can deny.

In the coalition of the Liberal and Democrats, we have an example of the determination of the honest portion of the American people to reform the abuses which dishonest and incompetent officials have introduced into the different departments of our government. Such a step had become a matter of necessity, else there would have been a long disregard in every respect for the constitution of our country.

This is no child's play, but a movement so powerful in its momentum that every thing will be swept before it. Under the banner of which Horace Greeley is the bearer, the honest men of the country, burying all past party affiliations and differences, will march in solid phalanx in November and cast their vote for reform and honesty.

THE CONTEST.

The great contest in North Carolina which has been rousing with increasing interest since the nominations of the respective parties, and to which the eyes of the whole American people have been turned, is decided; for whom we cannot state with certainty at this time, but can any one doubt the result?

After the efforts put forth by our candidates, and the unweary exertions of our friends every where, victory must perch upon our banner.

In the West, where numbers have failed to vote since the war, they have turned out and will roll up great additions to the Conservative ticket. Our candidates have made one of the finest canvases ever known in this State.

With all the lights before us, we have only to say to our friends to wait patiently. The result will be soon known. Beyond question, we think the sun last night set on A. S. Merrimon as Governor of North Carolina.

HON. SION H. ROGERS.

This gentleman has made a faithful and effective canvass of his District, has bent his whole time and energies to the good of our cause and for his services we doubt not the Conservatives have again elected him to a seat in Congress where he will serve the people and watch their interests with unceasing fidelity.

WHO ARE THE BEARERS OF THE GREAT REFORM MOVEMENT IN THE UNITED STATES, AND FOR WHOM SHOULD THE GOOD MEN OF THE COUNTRY VOTE FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT IN NOVEMBER? GREELEY AND BROWN.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 31st ult., says: The split in Pennsylvania is unhealable. The chasm—not yet bloody—is widening. The Washington Forney (D. C.), brother to the Colonel, is out in a long letter, which he heads, "A Reply to Cameron's Falsehoods." It is a delectable development of personal crimination and recrimination. D. C. F. makes the statement that in an interview at the invitation of Cameron, that gentleman informed him that "John W. Forney might have anything he desired if he only stopped fighting Hartranft."

This is a close imitation of Grant in his attempt to win over Schurz by offering him a bellyful of patronage if he would only go St. Domingo. Forney seems to have been proof against the offer made him, as was Senator Schurz.

Public virtue must be recuperating. The Forneys are, from what motive it would not be exactly fair to inquire, doing something in their behalf, and we may trust that they will do some good, although they appear to be compensating the other side by sustaining the vices of the National Administration while warning upon the corruptions in Pennsylvania. D. C. F. makes the following prediction with regard to the party prospects in that State:

"The Republican party is sure to be defeated Pennsylvania in October, and Simon Cameron's personal rule and political prostitutions are the causes which will produce the disaster. It is the only way for the people to get rid of him and break up the vile combination which he calculates to fasten on the State after he descends to his grave. It is the only escape from his pollutions and the plunderings of those he has trained as his followers. It is the only way to light up the dark places in the financial affairs in Pennsylvania; to cleanse its auditing office; to fix proper guards around its treasury, and prevent its Chief Magistrate from being made a vassal of the Clan Cameron. A Republican defeat at this time, I admit, is a fearful venture, but the tremendous influences demanding it in Pennsylvania are like the knife of the surgeon which cuts deep into a rotten part to save an entire body from festering corruption and death. I rejoice to feel, therefore, that the people of Pennsylvania are moved by such a spirit, and the people of the whole country will be glad when this corrupt ring is sent to the grave of Tammany."

MR. GROESBECK'S LETTER.

The following is the letter of Hon. William S. Groesbeck, the Bolting Free Traders' candidate for the Presidency, declaring himself in favor of Greeley and Brown:

"I differ in politics with Mr. Greeley, who was not my choice, but he has been chosen and with extraordinary unanimity, and is now, before us, the only representative of reconciliation, and is under pledges for important reform—his great ability, courage and patriotism are unquestioned, and if he is elected we have good reason to believe we will get reconciliation and reform. If he is defeated we already know we will not get them, but the Administration now closing will be repeated.—

It should not be repeated nor should we make it an example for imitation by the endorsement of a re-election. As a soldier Gen. Grant was justly distinguished. His war services were great, and should be acknowledged by all. They have been, and are ever generously acknowledged, and we shall never forget them. But he is not suited for the Civil Magistracy, and we should allow his administration to close with the pending term. I intend to write at more length and more in detail, but what I have already said is a fair reply to your note. Thanking you for your flattering invitation, I am, very respectfully.

MR. SUMNER'S LETTER.

It is stated that the letter of Hon. Charles Sumner, declaring himself for Greeley and advising the colored men to do likewise, fell like a bomb shell among the colored in Montgomery, Alabama.

This step, taken by a man who has been one of the advocates of all the measures taken for the advancement of colored men, who has been one of their great champions in the National Legislature, cannot fail to have its effect on the race; no one could have more influence with them than Mr. Sumner, and in due season it will bring forth fruit.

CANVASSERS FROM OTHER STATES.

The Democrats of North Carolina surely have reason to feel grateful to gentlemen from other States who lent their aid to the great work in the past exciting campaign. Immense good was done by the able and patriotic efforts of Senators Schurz and Tipton, Governor Walker, Colonels McClure and Hinton and others, and North Carolina will long remember them for their services.

WHAT means the great revolution in public sentiment which is fast extending over the whole country?

That the people of the United States are tired of dishonesty, corruption and inefficiency in office, and will correct these evils by voting for Greeley and Brown in November.

ROW AT A REPUBLICAN MEETING IN SAVANNAH.—On the 29th the Republicans had a meeting in which a row took place between the city and country negroes and their respective white leaders, in which several persons were beaten. The meeting broke up in a general stampede. A street car difficulty was quieted down. The negroes fired into a house on the suburbs last night, seriously wounding Mr. Barber, Mrs. Cohen and two children.

CITY SCRIP

California contains a larger number of foreigners proportionately than any other State in the Union. The census shows 336,908 natives and 409,889 foreign born.

"THERE MAY BE SOME DEMOCRATS PRESENT WHO ARE REPENTANT AND I LIKE TO PREACH TO SINNERS. YOU HAVE HEARD OF THE FELLOW WHO SAID, 'I CAME NOT TO CALL THE RIGHTEOUS, BUT SINNERS, TO REPENTANCE.'—Delano in his speech at Raleigh.

The Riot in Savannah.

A correspondent of the New York Advertiser gives the following particulars of the recent riot in Savannah, Ga.:

A riot occurred at a Grant meeting last night, during which several persons were stabbed and beaten with clubs. Henry Bogardus, a citizen, was shot in the shoulder while passing by. Henry Estress, a constable, was shot in the arm; Benjamin Morgan was shot in the breast and Thomas Wilson was beaten.

The Mayor has issued a proclamation inviting all citizens to assist in preserving the peace.

The riot was occasioned by continued attempts of the negroes to ride in the "white cars." The railroad company took no action against the several negroes ejected by the young men. At two o'clock in the afternoon two negroes were expelled from the cars. The excitement increased, and towards night 2,000 negroes lined the street; many white persons were also out.

About eight o'clock a car was fired into by negroes, and the white men in the car returned the fire. Every car that passed after that was fired into.

The fire along the road became general, and was kept up for about an hour, the negroes shooting in all directions.

About eleven o'clock two ladies and two children were shot by roaming negroes while standing on the steps in front of their houses. The police were armed with muskets, and ordered out by the Mayor, but the cars stopped running and the demonstration ceased.

To-day everything is quiet. Three young men have been arrested, charged with ejecting negroes from the cars, and their cases have been postposed by the United States Commissioner until Thursday.

The following is a list of the casualties: Mrs. Barber, two painful buckshot wounds in the breast; two children were shot in the body and one in the stomach; two children slightly wounded; H. F. Segar, shot in the wrist; Henry Suberb, shot in the foot.

Several negroes were wounded, but none killed.

DIED.

TAYLOR.—In Richmond, Va., on Sunday last, Mrs. A. D. TAYLOR, consort of A. B. Taylor, Esq., formerly of this city.

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this descriptive specialty full.

HILLSBORO has many visitors.

WADESBORO is quiet since the riot.

WILMINGTON will soon enjoy a horse race for $100 purse.

A GREELEY and Brown Club is to be organized in Wilmington.

CHICKEN cholera is playing havoc with the chickens in Hillsboro.

THE Recorder complains that Canada is blooming in the streets of Hillsboro.

THE German Association of Wilmington elected officers for the ensuing year, last Tuesday.

The building destroyed by the incendiary in Charlotte on Wednesday was insured for $2,000.

The body of an infant was found in a creek near Chapel Hill recently, and the mother is charged with the murder.

A LADY who had gone to Wilmington for treatment for that terrible disease, cancer of the throat, was found dead on her bed on Tuesday morning.

WHILE a Greeley negro was speaking a few days since at Leesburg, Person county, he was set upon and whipped with switches by a crowd of exasperated negroes.

Five hundred thousand dollars of winnings at bluff is a neat record for card playing. That is what a San Francisco girl says she cleared from the pictures.

BEN LIPSCOMB has been arrested in Wilmington and bound over to the next term of the Superior Court for breaking into, and stealing from, the store of Messrs. Bunting and McQuigg.

The Wilmington Star says: The intimidation alluded to in the Post as having been practiced on the Radical orators who were sent down to Onslow amounted simply to this: They were met on every occasion by one or two Conservative speakers, who gave them such a "raking down" in the way of old fashioned Democratic argument that they got sick and came home in disgust. This and nothing more, as we have it on good authority.

The Republican Stampede to Greeley.

Since the Baltimore Convention, the onward roll of the Greeley wave has been seen and felt everywhere.

It is impossible to give the details of a movement which has a separate strength in every election precinct. We select a few straws, to show merely the strength of the Republican vote for Greeley.

The colored men, and especially the ignorant portion of them, have been relied on by Grant; but we find such prominent colored men as the following supporting Greeley, viz.: Lieutenant Governor Pinchbeck and the Rev. J. Sella Martin, of Louisiana; Wm. U. Saunders, colored elector on the Grant ticket in Maryland, and Jas. H. Parker, of the same State, a delegate to the Morris Convention; Robert Morris, a colored lawyer of Boston, Mass.; Geo. T. Downing, of Rhode Island; Elias Polk, of Nashville, and J. T. Mahoney, of Indiana.

In New York, six members of the Grant State Central Committee of 1868 have pronounced for Greeley. A. T. Stewart, to make whom Secretary of the Treasury Grant asked Congress to repeal a law of seventy years standing before he had been a day in office, now subscribes $30,000 toward the expenses of electing Greeley. Chauncy M. Depew, one of the most eloquent stump speakers in the State; De Witt, C. Littlejohn, the most influential Republican in Northern New York; Charles B. Sedgwick, of Syracuse; Hon. Charles Hughes and Bert Van Horn, both Republicans ex-Congressmen, are all for Greeley.

In Mr. Greeley's county, the support of S. E. Gifford, county judge; D. C. R. Briggs, district attorney; W. N. Niles, member of Assembly; Jared V. P. C., ex-member of Congress, all Republicans, and a club which promises to include every resident within ten miles of Greeley's farm, indicates that in this case the prophet hath full honor in his own country. The central committee of Long Island was found to contain three Greeley men, three Grant men, and one independent. Every court in New York contains its Greeley clubs, and the State is likely to give Greeley 50,000 majority and upwards.

Going across the country of Wisconsin, we find, "straws," indicating the successful opening of the campaign, that the Liberal Republicans count upwards of 400 votes at Fond du Lac; the call for a Greeley meeting is signed by 145 Republicans at La Crosse, in which over one third of the Republicans have declared for Greeley. They have a club of 124 at Monroe; and a club at Racine which is expected to reach 1,000 members.

In Minnesota, the straws all drift the same way. Of the five hundred signatures to the roll of the Greeley club in St. Paul, nearly half are Republicans.

In the town of Chaska, Carver county, out of one hundred and fifty Republicans, there is only one vote left for Grant.

Of the Republican press, eight support Greeley, and the remaining twenty-four have postoffices. Hastings starts the campaign with a club of one hundred and twelve Greeley Republicans.

Iowa is ablaze for Greeley. Ex-Governor Stone, ex-Governor Merrill, Hon. J. B. Grinnell, Jacob Butler, Fitz Henry Warren and other old time Republicans are doing effective work. At Council Bluffs, the local Grant paper having denied that there were any Greeley Republicans, sixty-five came forward within an hour, and certified their intention to vote for Greeley and Brown. The same test might be applied in almost any village in the State.

In Kansas, Michigan, Indiana and Pennsylvania, the old-time Republicans are rapidly coming out for Greeley. In Giddings' old district in Ohio, the Republican organ goes for Greeley, and a large share of the Republican vote of the district. In Pittsburgh, Pa., the Gazette having charged that none but "disappointed and obscure" Republicans voted for Greeley, the Post gives a list of 44 of the first Republicans of Pittsburg, living in a single election district, all for Greeley. In Michigan, under ex-Governor Blair and ex-Con-gressmen Strickland and Driggs, the Greeley movement amounts to a stampede.

So the good cause goes on. Much has been done in Illinois, and our readers are familiar with it. Fully four-fifths of the German vote of the State is believed to be for Greeley and Koenner. Time would fail us to enumerate the towns where large clubs of Greeley Republicans are already organized.—Chicago Tribune.

Curious Omissions.

The Missouri Democrat calls attention to the omission, in the report of the correspondence between Schurz and Greeley, of the following passage from the letter of the former to the latter:

"As you are undoubtedly aware, your opponents in the pre-s charge that you are in contact with, and under the influence of, politicians of doubtful character; that if you are elected President such men would be likely to be appointed to influential offices; and that, therefore, the cause of reform has nothing to hope from you."

And also the following from Greeley to Schurz:

"I pass over the allusion of my political associates, barely remarking that an imputation so vague can never be specifically repelled. Charity is a virtue rarely exemplified in politics; and most men live and die in the undoubting conviction that their political opponents are the greatest scoundrels unkind. I trust that my age and your experience have lifted us above such prejudices, enabling us to realize that the most sincerely desire the greatest public good, even when most mistaken in their choice of means. I know who my friends are better than my traducers do, and fear no scrutiny as to whom I give my confidence. And should any such ever seek to swerve me from the path of rectitude they would cease to be regarded by me as friends."

Mrs. Hulling and her sister, Mrs. Major Charles Lowe, left the house of the latter for the purpose of calling on some of their friends, and as they approached the track they observed the passenger train from Morrisburg coming slowly towards them. Mrs. Lowe refused to cross before the train arrived, and advised her sister not to attempt it, but Mrs. Hulling thought there was no danger, and tripped and fell on the track. The train was too close to be stopped before it reached the unfortunate lady, and she was crushed beneath the engine and almost instantly killed. Her body was mangialed in a most frightful manner. Both arms were broken, one of them being entirely severed except a small piece of skin. The wheels crossed over the hips and lower part of the body, crushing the pelvis bones and literally tearing out the bowels. The train was stopped after the engine, tender and one car had passed over her, and life was extinct when she was reached. Mrs. Hulling was the second daughter of Michael Ross, well known as the founder of Williamsport, and who at one time owned nearly all the land on which the city now stands.

The Raleigh Daily News.
FRIDAY.....AUGUST 2, 1872.

THE OLD, OLD HOME,
When I long for sainted memories,
Like angel troops they come,
If I fold my arms to ponder
On the old, old home,
The old, old home,
Through which the feelings room,
But its middle aisle is spiced
To the thoughts of old, old home.

Where infamy was sheltered—
Like roost-birds from the tree,
Where falsehood's bird alighted,
In joyous song it passed on,
To that sweet spot forever,
As to some hallowed dome,
Life's pilgrim beads her vision—
Tis her old, old home.

A father sat, how proudly,
By that old, old home he lay,
And in his children stories,
Of blarney manhood's days!
And one soft eye was beaming,
From child to old world room;
There he counts her treasures,
In the old, old home.

The birthday gifts and festivals,
The blarney proper hymn
(Some dear one who was swelling it
Is with the Seraphim,)—
The fond "good night" at bed-time,
How all the world would come,
Like angels ever come,
I'll fold us all together
In the old, old home.

Like a wreath of scented flowers
Close intertwined each heart;
But time and change in concert
Have blown the wreath apart.
But still the old, old home
Lies like a dream come,
Like angels ever come,
I'll fold us all together
In the old, old home.
